

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Attaching a labyrinth seal composed of wear-resistant material to the surfaces of rotating equipment subject to wear can increase the life of the rotating equipment and reduce down-time for equipment maintenance and repairs.